HAWTHORNE'S GOOD RACING.

It was a perfect afternoon for horse racing yesterday, and such a crowd took advantage of it that the Hawthorne grandstand was packed almost to overflowing. The assemblage present was above the ordinary in prosperous appearance, and from all indications Chicago is going to enjoy a remarkably healthy season of horse racing.

There was no stake or other sharp attraction billed, still all of the events were well balanced and that is what the public like. Out of the six races three favorites won and, from a betting standpoint, the speculators must have quit about even.

There was a condition race at a mile and a quarter which might have been interesting, but Charles Smith's good colt His Excellency, dropped in with ninety pounds, and as all the other starters were very ordinary, this largely took the interest out of the event as far as first place went, but everyone seemed to have a different opinion as to who would be second and betting for that position was lively.

Abe Jacobs, of the Olympic theatre, had a strong notion toward Domsie and backed him from 15 to 1 for the place and 3 to 1 to show down to 6 to 1 and even money. As was conceded by all, His Excellency won easily, and after a hard battle with Julius Caesar and Donna Rita, Domsie got second place.

There was one very close finish during the afternoon between Dr. Walmsley and San Mateo, the former winning the decision by a nose, thanks to Ross' powerful finish. Dr. Walmsley and San Mateo hooked up about the sixteenth post, and from there to the wire it was a nose-and-nose struggle. San Mateo was the better horse, but Ross outrode Buchanan and managed to land Dr. Walmsley a winner by a very narrow margin.

Tenny Belle, long overdue and at the liberal price of 4 to 1, won the opening five furlong two-year-old dash in a romp by five lengths.

Kid Cox, with a pull in the weights, beat a good field of youngsters at five and a half furlongs most impressively. He is a "sure enough" good colt, and is deserving of attention whenever he starts.

Miss Shanley, cleverly ridden by Devin, had excellent racing luck in her race and easily beat Golden Rattle and Brownie Anderson, who had all kinds of bad luck.

There were eight good ones in the mile closing condition race and Eva Rice, with 109 pounds up, stepped a mile in 1:41 and took down the purse.

The day's sport was very tame as a rule and Starter Holtman's work was below his recent average.

The June Stakes, to be run at Hawthorne today, promises to be the best racing event of the spring meeting. The track is fast, as is evident from Eva Rice's mile in 1:41 yesterday, and owners are more liberal about starting their horses than they were in the stake events last week when the course was muddy. Eight horses are carded to go to the post as follows:

Horse, age and pedigree.	Wt.
Tenby, 5, by Tenny—Soprano	111
Harry Nutter, 4, by Harry O'Fallon—Vina N.	107
Sam McKeever, 4, by Sam Lucas—Etta McKeever	107
Fly By Night, 4, by Candlemas—Flibbertigibbet	104
Highland Lad, 3, by Florist—Highlander Mare	92
Barrack, 3, by Bersan—Fable	92
The Monk, 3, by Lord Esterling—Doubt	92
Flaunt, 3, by Forester—Display	92

The June Stakes is at 1 1-8 miles, for three-year-olds and upward and has a guaranteed value of $2,000, of which $1,500 goes to the winner, $300 to the second and $200 to the third.

HARLEM OPENS SATURDAY.

Programs for the first seven days of Harlem's spring meeting, which opens Saturday, were issued yesterday by secretary Nathanson. The program provides for a diversity of races and all of a nature to prove pleasing to race goers and horse owners. In all there are forty-two races carded and twenty-one of them, from a spectators standpoint, are what the public desire, as they are all at a mile or over. Interspersed throughout the book are twenty-one other events, many of them for two-year-olds and others for older sprinters.

From a spectacular point of view the numerous steeplechase races will be interesting. These jumping affairs will be features of each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday over both the short and long routes of Harlem's new steeplechase course. In the matter of purses the program shows that during the first week at the Proviso course the sum of $23,000 will be divided among winning horses. Of that amount $8,200 will be for contenders in the stake events.

Saturday's card should secure a large number of entries, as the conditions of each race are such as to attract the best horses now racing in Chicago. Harlem's inaugural card also includes the Austin Stakes at one and a sixteenth miles. It will be worth $2,000, of which $1,500 goes to the winner, $300 to the second and $200 to the third horse. There have been 111 nominations made to this stake and among the probable starters will be the following:

Barrack, Tenby, Harry Nutter, Potente, The Lady, Sam McKeever, The Monk, Volicer, Molo, Sam Fuller, Cambrian, Handpress, Brisk, Gold Fox, Larkspur, The Roman, Fly By Night, Florizar, Toribio, Orimar and The Elector.

The conditions of the first race at six furlongs should bring together a large field of speedy ones. F. T. Wood, owner of May Beach, says that she will start. Wood's grand mare will have fast company in some of the following eligibles: Hermoso, Dr. Walmsley, O'Connell, Bangle, Algareta, Abe Furst, Ben Ledi, Battus, Ed Gartland II., Georgie, Headwater, Minyon, Nobleman and St. Cuthbert.

The second race, Saturday, is at four and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, and may bring out Miss Bennett, Benson Caldwell, Denizulu, Fancy Wood, Garry Hermann, Gold Badge, Money Muss, Odnor, Silverdale and The Cuban Girl, and possibly Sofala.

In the third race, at one and an eighth miles, a good lot of selling platers may be looked for, and in the fifth an opportunity is offered for a bruising contest between a bunch of fast three-year-olds in the six furlong sprint.

The sixth race is another one for three-year-olds and upward, but the distance is one mile and it will give Advance Guard a chance to take the measure of Boney Boy, Cambrian, Donna Rita, Eva Rice, Florizar, Flaunt, Great Bend, Jolly Roger, John Baker and Malay.

Workmen are rapidly putting the finishing touches to Harlem's new grandstand and betting ring and everything will be in readiness for Saturday afternoon. A feature of the sport will be daily musical programs furnished by a complete orchestra under the direction of Banks Cregier. The track has been given a new cushion by Superintendent Myers and it is rapidly rounding into shape.

Hart Dernham, representing the Harlem Jockey Club, will be at Hawthorne until 9:30 o'clock Friday morning to receive entries for Saturday afternoon's races at Harlem.

MAY AND OTHER FORM BOOKS.

May books of Form Charts in paper cover are on sale. They contain all the Form Charts of all tracks from May 1 to May 31, inclusive. Price $1.00.

He had to be ridden hard at the eighth post to catch Kensington, but won with something in reserve at the end. Kensington showed plenty of speed, but Jenkins put up a poor finish. Oliver Mc ran well for five furlongs, but tired. The others are not of much account at present, although Monadour showed early speed and should be improved by the race.

LARKSPUR'S JUNE STAKES.

Hawthorne has certainly had bad luck so far this season, so far as weather conditions and a bad track are concerned. Still the attendance at the Cicero course has been up to, and in fact far above the average in comparison with last season.

The heavy rain of Wednesday morning hit Hawthorne full in the face and yesterday the track was in a terrible condition, and the June Stakes, which promised so much, was won by a medium-class filly. Only three of the horses named through the entry box Tuesday night remained in, and had not three—Larkspur, Thomas Carey and Malaise—been added the race would have been a fizzle. As it was it furnished a very ordinary contest that was not worth one-fifth the money that the association was obliged to pay out.

In the stake it was an odd occurrence that added horses ran one two, and they beat the other starters away off. Although only five started for this event speculation on it was extremely lively and every starter, with the exception of Malaise, was well supported. The Monk had the call in the betting at about 7 to 5, but the deep mud was a handicap to him and before half the journey was over it was evident that he had no chance.

Larkspur and Thomas Carey were the only ones that were suited by the muddy condition of the track, and after the field had raced about a half mile it was evident that Larkspur would win and Thomas Carey would be second. The latter is named after the prominent alderman of the Twenty-ninth ward, and on this account he had quite a following, and his followers did not forget to "root," either, otherwise the event would have been flat. As it was the stock-yards delegation rooted hard for their favorite, and this seemed to enthrall others, consequently the June Stakes did not pass into turf history unnoticed. There was but one incident in the running of the stake worthy of mention, and that was that Buchanan on Larkspur almost threw Flaunt over the fence on the first turn, for which the judges promptly fined Buchanan $100.

Those that backed Castake to win the fifth event hardly realized how lucky they were to cash their tickets. The gelding led all the way, but in the last hundred yards he became very tired and bore out, interfering slightly but not sharply enough to call for judicial action, with Trimmer. On the latter was jockey Miller, who is without a doubt one of the worst riders in existence, and despite the fact that the horse he rode was far the best, Master Miller managed to get beaten out by a neck.

With Abe Furst in the second race down went the talent with Rome Respass and all his friends. The old horse was always at odds-on and seemed to be a "moral" with the high weights up, but Nobleman, well ridden by W. Kiley, beat him rather handily.

Starter Holtman was kind to Pat Duane in the first race sending his youngster Martin away flying, and he won all the way.

W. Kiley seems to ride with more judgment than any of the other boys, and his handling of Louisville in the last race was worthy of mention. The filly was slow in getting away and had some bad luck, but Kiley never lost his head and from last position passing the half mile ground he gradually worked his way to the front and at the end managed to win by a head from Kittie G.

W. P. Magrane recently bought Lomond out of a selling race and more than won him out in the third event. Lomond loves the mud and won from end to end. He was always about 2 to 1 and was heavily backed.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Fervor, James Arthur's six-year-old son of Fonso and Bettie Blaise, is dead at Montgomery Park. Fervor was buried inside the park inclosure, and his grave marks the solitary resting place of a race horse at the track which has served as a winter home for many famous thoroughbreds during the past twenty years. Fervor was a half-brother to Bannockburn, and won many races for his owner, including the St. Patrick's Handicap at New Orleans in 1898, when a "killing" was made by secretly preparing the horse at Memphis and shipping him south before the race.

High Order and Prince of Melbourne are the only star two-year-olds of last season that have not yet made a public appearance. If the accounts of the Order colt's work are correct, he is all right. The blind splint under the left foreknee, which gave him so much trouble last year, has not bothered him this season. He has done whatever work Peter Wimmer has called upon him to do without the least trouble, and will probably train on nicely. Prince of Melbourne has grown some since last season, but he has been a bit backward. Mr. Beard hopes to have him ready for the Derby.

Diamond Jubilee, winner of the English Derby, was ridden by the little featherweight Harry Jones, the stable lad who alone can manage him. He ran in the Derby as tamely as a sheep, though he lost two valuable races for the Prince earlier in his career, when the crack jockey Morny Cannon was up. Jones appears to take no special care to humor this ordinarily fractious animal, who has nearly killed two other stable lads, but the instant Jones puts his legs across him the horse is as quiet as a lamb and runs to his last ounce.

"Tod" Sloan, who finished fourth on Dreyfus' Solon in the Grand Prix du Jockey Club on Sunday last, was fined 500 francs ($100) for disobedience to the starter before the big race. Prior to that he had ridden two races, but after the penalty was imposed he refused to put his foot in a stirrup for the remainder of the day.

Mr. Albert Simons has purchased from Mr. John E. Madden the three two-year-olds, Luerana, Beau Gallant and Regea, the first named a winner and a good filly. Mr. Simons has also purchased the three-year-old bay colt Scales, by The Bard—Equipoise, from Mr. C. F. Hill. These horses will all be campaigned in the west.

Mr. F. G. Sullivan, Secretary of the Metropolitan Turf Association, has sent out the official announcement that hereafter bets will not be declared off under any circumstances. All bets made after the numbers have been posted on the official bulletin board will stand.—Spirit of the Times.

President Thomas H. Williams of the California Jockey Club, who had promised immunity to Jockey Hennessy for testifying in the Lynch-Piggott-Martin scandal, has kept his promise, and Hennessy has been reinstated.

SALES AT HAWTHORNE.

At a sale held in the Hawthorne paddock last Saturday, the following racers found new owners:

Schnell-lauer, 3, to H. Robinson ..... $300
Miss Patron, 4, to L. H. Ezell ..... 200
Chancery, 4, to L. H. Ezell ..... 200
Zack Phelps, 2, to J. H. Smith ..... 150
Hop Scotch, 4, to J. R. Hand ..... 50

Myosotis and Gibson Girl were not sold though scheduled. The three-year-old Tom Richardson was knocked down to "cash" for the munificent sum of $25.

Mahe on Rikki Tikki Tavi avoided the early hot pace and had plenty left when Vulcain challenged. The latter ran a good race, but could not give away the weight. He got away in front, but took Kinnickinnick back, then made up the ground, but the horse did not have much left when the stretch was reached. Nansen ran a good race and would have won in another half furlong.

Winner—Br. g. by Wagner—Bon Solr.
Went to post at 2:20. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily up; second handily. Third and fourth driving hard. Matin was presented with a flying start and won all the way. He was better than this lot and did not need such a send-off to win. Sannazaro, for a new beginner, ran a good race and seems to be particularly fond of mud. El Piloto finished gamely under punishment. Senator Joe labored in the going and tired at the end. Possart got away in a tangle and never really got straightened out. Impromptu showed no speed.
Scratched—John Scott, 118; 17881 Zack Phelps, 115; 17881 Santalus, 118; 17768 Exmoor, 118.
Matin, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Sannazaro, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. El Piloto, show, 3 to 1. Possart, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Top Gallant—Lizzie English.
Went to post at 2:55. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily at the end after an early drive; second and third were doing their best. Nobleman is in good form, liked the going, and won impressively. He crossed in front of ABE FURST at the eighth post in the stretch, almost causing a foul. He did not hit ABE FURST, however, and as Knight made no claim the judges let the matter pass. ABE FURST had no excuses and ran his race. He never was much in deep, sticky going. The first three outclassed the others and beat them away off. Nora C. showed a flash of speed, but retired early.
Scratched—15302 Dagmar, 126.
Overweights—Voyageur, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Midlothian—Tallada.
Went to post at 3:25. Off at the second break to a good start. Won easily; second, third, fourth and fifth driving to the limit. Lomond reveled in the going and made a runaway race of it. He is a fairly good colt and at his best now. Under a bad ride Forbush ran a good race. Miller seems to get into trouble on the far turn with every horse he rides, and in this instance he got Forbush sharply shut off, after which the gelding displayed great gameness. Galileo made up a lot of ground from the head of the stretch home, and seems to like mud. Mark him for early action in a jumping race. Woodtrice finished where he belonged and was at altogether too short a price.
Scratched—18113 Clara Wooley, 90; 18268 Vain, 100.
Overweights—Woodtrice, 1 pound.
Lomond, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Forbush, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Galileo, show, 4 to 1. Woodtrice, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Scorpion—Lindollette.
Went to post at 3:55. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily up; second and third the same. Larkspur reveled in the going, had speed to spare and was never fully extended. She is a good filly over a distance of ground, especially when it is muddy. Thomas Carey ran one of his best races, but was outclassed by the winner. The deep going seemed to be a handicap to The Monk, who ran far below the mark. Flaunt was jammed into the fence and badly interfered with by Larkspur on the first turn. Malise showed her usual amount of speed, but was much used by pacemaking and tired in the stretch.
Scratched—17229 Harry Nutter, 107; 14703 Fly By Night, 104; 18293 Sam McKeever, 107; 17655 Highland Lad, 92; (18145) Barrack, 92; 18269 Tenby, 111.

Winner—B. g. by Apache—Lina.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second the same. Castake liked the going, showed the most speed and was well handled. He may have been a trifle short and tired in the last thirty yards and bore out, interfering slightly with Trimmer. The latter was much the best and only a bad ride beat him. Miller did the best he could, but as a jockey he has a lot to learn. The going was a handicap to Racivan, and this considered, he ran his race. Glonoine seemed to be going easily on the far turn but when Moody let him down he quit badly. Irish B. gave Glonoine a terrible kick at the post.

Went to post at 5:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second hard driven. Louisville got the worst of the start, but was finely ridden by Kiley and ran a good, game race. Kittie G. showed fine speed, also a fondness for heavy going, and after being heavily backed came near landing. Satan and Zeriba both quit badly in the stretch. Thermos made a poor showing. He is a fair sort of a colt and can do better than this.

Tickful got off none too well, made up his ground too quickly and tired in the stretch run. Jake Weber was pocketed most of the route and received the worst of a bumping match with Tickful at the finish. Celeste d'Or ran well for six furlongs.
